LESSON HANDOUT

Main Point

Solving relational conflict does not always mean getting your way

GENESIS 13:1-18

- 1. Focus in on verses 1-7. When has a time of worship changed your perspective or course of action?
- 2. Now look at verses 8-13. What keeps us from approaching conflict the way Abram did?
- 3. What are the consequences of not approaching conflict as Abram did?
- 4. How could your willingness to take the short end of the stick impact your relationships?

GENESIS 13:14-18.

- 1. When have you made the conscious decision to stand down in a relational conflict? What were the results?
- 2. Are you currently involved in any situations that would benefit from the decision to stand down? Explain.
- 3. If you give in, what do you feel like you would be forfeiting?
